Re: Board Application

Dear Ms. Evers;

Thank you for submitting your recent application showing your interest to serve on our City Boards or Committees. A copy of your application will be retained in the appropriate files and as vacancies occur on a Board or Committee your application will be reviewed. The City Council and/or Board/Committee members may contact you for an interview or with questions pertaining to your application. The City Boards/Committee may make a recommendation to the City Council but it is the duty of the City Council to make that Board or Committee appointment.

You will be notified if you are selected to serve on a Committee or Board. Again, thank you for your interest in helping to make our City a better place to live.

Please, if you should have any questions or concerns regarding serving on any of the City Boards or Committees you can contact the City Clerk's office at 386-424-2400 ext. 1102 and we will be happy to help you.

Sincerely,
