

CASE SUMMARY
2025-CE-00122417
Repeat Violation
Citation# 0537
Hearing Date: August 14, 2025
Code Officer: R. Hazelwood

DESCRIPTION:

G-Force Holdings LLC is the owners of the property located at 2007 Travelers Palm Dr, in Edgewater, Florida. It has been found in violation of Section 10-400 (Property Maintenance) of the City of Edgewater's Code of Ordinances.

BACKGROUND:

On June 25, 2025 while on patrol I observed the grass/weeds in excess of 12" at the listed location of 2007 Travelers Palm Dr.

A system check revealed the property was cited for a property maintenance violation on 8-8-24 with an abatement issued. Citation# 0639 Notice of Hearing was subsequently issued. It was posted to the property, sent certified mail to the owner and posted at City Hall.

Additionally, a Property Maintenance Violation abatement was subsequently issued.

All notices and provisions of Chapter 10 Article XXVIII have been complied with.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends the Special Magistrate find T G-Force Holdings LLC , in violation of Section 10-400 (Property Maintenance) of the Code of Ordinances and assess the repeat citation fine of $150.00.

Violation(s) City of Edgewater Code of Ordinances:

SEC. 10-400. - PROPERTY MAINTENANCE NUISANCE CONDITIONS; ABATEMENT;
NOTICE AND HEARING; LIEN FOR EXPENSES.

(a) It is declared by the city council that the following shall each individually or in combination be a property maintenance nuisance when they exist upon any right-of-way, parcel, lot, lots, adjacent lots, or property:

- (1) Any dead, damaged or diseased tree, located within 35 feet of any public roadway, public or private sidewalk that is adjacent to a public roadway, or any developed property when the tree has been declared a hazard by a code enforcement officer or an arborist.
- (2) Grass, weeds, brush and undergrowth (specifically excluding trees, planted ornamental shrubs and saw palmettos) that are allowed to reach a height in excess of 12 inches on an improved or developed lot, which impair or may impair the economic welfare of the adjacent property, contribute to a fire hazard and/or create a health hazard when any part of those growths are located on any lot adjacent to the boundary of any developed lot.
- (3) Accumulation of waste, yard trash, or rubble and debris that may harbor rodents or snakes or that may contain pools of water that may serve as breeding grounds for insects or other disease transmitters.

(b) If the code enforcement officer determines that a property maintenance nuisance exists on any lot, tract, or parcel of land within the city, the code enforcement officer shall provide notice to the violator. The notice shall have the following information:

- (1) The name and address of the property owner.
- (2) The location of the property maintenance nuisance.
- (3) The date and time the property maintenance nuisance notice was issued.
- (4) The date and time the property maintenance nuisance was first observed.
- (5) The section of the code that has been violated and a description of the nature of the property maintenance nuisance.
- (6) Necessary corrective action.
- (7) The name and contact information of the code enforcement officer issuing the notice.

Contact the code enforcement officer once the violation(s) has been corrected.

Failure to comply with this notice of violation and take corrective action will result in the issuance of a notice of hearing and a civil fine not to exceed $500. Daily fines, not to exceed $500 per day, may also be assessed. Any future violation(s) of the same nature may result in the issuance of a notice of hearing and a civil fine not to exceed $500. Daily fines, not to exceed $500 per day, may also be assessed.

(8) The date in which the violation must be corrected. The violator has ten days to correct the property maintenance nuisance from the date the notice was issued as outlined in section 10-400(c).

(9) A conspicuous statement that the city will correct the property maintenance nuisance and shall place a lien against the property for all cost incurred if the violation isn't corrected or a request for a hearing isn't received by the indicated date on the notice.

(c) All property maintenance nuisances notices required by this article shall be provided to the alleged violator by:

(1) Certified mail, return receipt requested to the address listed in the tax collector's office for tax notices, or to the address listed in the county property appraiser's database. The city may also provide additional notice to any address it may find for the property owner. For property owned by a corporation, notices may be provided by certified mail to the registered agent of the corporation. The code enforcement officer shall post a copy of the notice of property maintenance nuisance at the property upon which the violation is alleged to exist and at city hall. Proof of posting shall be by affidavit of the person posting the notice; or

(2) By hand delivery by the code enforcement officer; or

(3) In the case of commercial property, leaving the notice with the manager or other person in charge.

(d) Evidence that an attempt has been made to hand deliver or mailing notice and posting shall be sufficient to show that the notice requirements have been met, without regard to whether or not the alleged violator actually received such notice.

(e) If the owner does not correct the condition and does not request a hearing within the ten-day period, the city shall have the condition abated and shall have a lien against the property for cost incurred.

(f) If a hearing is requested, it shall be held before the special magistrate. The issues to be determined shall be whether the condition that exists constitutes a property maintenance nuisance as outlined in section 10-400(a). Upon appropriate findings, the special magistrate shall direct the owner of the property to correct the nuisance conditions within ten days, after which the city shall correct the nuisance conditions and shall have a lien against the property for all cost incurred.

(g) Costs shall include the cost of correcting the violation, together with any other expenses, which the city has incurred.

SEC. 10-401. - IMMINENT HEALTH HAZARDS ON PRIVATE PROPERTY.

When an imminent health hazard exists on private property, the city is authorized to enter the private property and remove the imminent health hazard after all reasonable efforts have been
